The Mobile Homes (Site Rules) (England) Regulations 2014 came into force on 4 February 2014 and will apply to all parks that satisfy the definition of a 'Relevant Protected Site' in England.

The regulations make it a requirement for park owners to:

- Consult with all occupiers and any qualifying residents' association on the new site rules;
- Use the procedure set out in the regulations for making the site rules, as well as, changing and varying the site rules;
- Use the forms which the regulations say must be used; and
- Deposit the site rules with the local authority.

1(a). Clearly set out the proposal(s) being made (A proposal means a proposal to make, vary or delete a site rule. A proposal notice may contain more than one proposal, as set out in regulation 8(4).) If there are a substantial number of changes to the park rules and these have been attached to this form then please complete 1(b).

Notes for Guidance

Prescribed matters to which site rules may relate (Regulation 4 – matters prescribed for the purposes of section 2C(2)(b) of the 1983 Act).

A site rule must be necessary:

- (a) to ensure acceptable standards are maintained on the site, which will be of general benefit to occupiers; or
- (b) to promote and maintain community cohesion on the site.

Prescribed matters to which site rules are of no effect so far as they make provision in relation to (Regulation 5 (Schedule 5) – matters prescribed for the purposes of section 2C(8) of the 1983 Act).

In relation to the sale or gift of a mobile home:

- (a) whether the occupier should be prevented from selling or gifting the mobile home to anyone other than the owner;
- (b) whether the occupier should be required to notify the owner of the occupier's intention to sell or gift the mobile home;
- (c) whether the occupier should be required to use the services of the owner or a person specified by the owner for the purposes of selling or gifting the mobile home;
- (d) whether the occupier should be prevented from using the services of an estate agent for the purposes of selling the mobile home;
- (e) whether the occupier should be prevented from using services provided by a solicitor for the purposes of selling or gifting the mobile home and assigning the agreement;
- (f) whether the occupier should be prevented from using any services that would otherwise be available to the occupier for the purposes of selling or gifting the mobile home;
- (g) whether the occupier should be prevented from advertising the mobile home for sale by means of a notice, board or placard affixed to the mobile home or to the pitch;
- (h) whether the occupier should be required to—
 - (i) obtain a survey of the mobile home or the pitch; or
 - (ii) permit the owner or his agents to undertake a survey of the mobile home or the pitchbefore selling or gifting the mobile home;
- (i) whether the occupier should be required to sell or gift the mobile home or assign the agreement in the presence of the owner;
- (j) whether the occupier or the proposed occupier should be required to provide the site owner with the personal details of the proposed occupier or of any other person intending to live in the mobile home with the proposed occupier;
- (k) whether the proposed occupier should be required to attend a meeting with the owner.

The following are examples of “personal details”—

- (a) the home address, other contact details or vehicle registration number of the person concerned;
- (b) any financial information relating to the person concerned;
- (c) a birth certificate or certificate of marriage or civil partnership of the person concerned; and
- (d) details of the age, ethnic origin, sex or sexual orientation of the person concerned.

In sub-paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f) and (h) above, references to selling a mobile home include a reference to marketing, advertising or offering the mobile home for sale.

Other matters:

- (a) any matter which is expressed to grant an occupier a right subject to the exercise of a discretion by the owner, except in relation to improvements to an occupier's plot (although this shall not prevent an owner from exercising discretion to grant an occupier a right in order to accommodate that occupier's disability);
- (b) any matter which is expressed to apply retrospectively;
- (c) any matter which is contrary to the implied terms of the agreement, as defined by section 1 of the 1983 Act;
- (d) any matter which is expressed to apply only to particular persons or to persons of a particular description, apart from where a rule makes an exception for the owner, the owner's family or an employee of the owner (where an employee of the owner does not occupy the site under an agreement to which the 1983 Act applies);
- (e) whether the occupier should be absolutely prohibited from making improvements to the home or pitch;
- (f) whether visitors to the site should be required to report to the owner on arrival;
- (g) whether any category of person should be restricted from visiting the site, regardless of whether the site has an age restriction in place;
- (h) whether the owner should be allowed to reduce the size of a pitch or its reorientation;
- (i) whether the owner should require the collection of deposits or charge for other services or permissions in addition to charges for the pitch fee, utility charges, for parking or sheds, where the charge is not permitted to be made under the agreement (as defined by section 1 of the 1983 Act) or by other legislation;
- (j) whether vehicular access to the site should be restricted in any way;
- (k) whether the occupier may have visitors to stay for short periods of time, whether or not the occupier is present at the time;
- (l) whether the occupier should be required to purchase only goods or services supplied by the owner or such other person as the owner may nominate;
- (m) whether the occupier should be required to use only such tradesmen as the owner may nominate, including the owner himself;
- (n) whether the site rules may be changed other than by the procedure set out in regulations 7 to 13 of these regulations;
- (o) whether the site rules may purport to threaten eviction for failure to comply with the site rules.

Where—

- (a) prior to the deposit of a site rule, the occupier of a site enjoyed a benefit; and
- (b) the effect of the coming into force of the deposited site rule is that the enjoyment of the benefit by the occupier will be in breach of the deposited site rule; the occupier will not be in breach of the deposited site rule for the period that the benefit continues to subsist.

On the cessation of the benefit, the occupier will be bound by the deposited site rule.
