Domestic Abuse
Directory

Domestic abuse is not just hitting or fighting or the occasional nasty argument, it is an abuse of power over another person. Domestic abuse is any intimidating behaviour, violence or abuse between adults who are or have been in a relationship, or between family members. Domestic Abuse has many forms including physical aggression, sexual abuse, financial abuse, emotional abuse. What ever form domestic abuse takes it is rarely a one-off incident and is frequently a behaviour that has repeatedly happened over many months or years. It can affect anybody, regardless of their gender or sexuality.

If YOU feel:

Unsafe, abused, threatened, isolated, confused, worthless, trapped, scared, intimidated or vulnerable because of things someone who lives with you, or has lived with you, says or does....

These are forms of DOMESTIC ABUSE

REMEMBER

- You have the right to feel safe and happy
- You have the right to make your own choices
- You have the right to live abuse free
- You are not alone; it can happen to anyone, anytime, anyplace
- We have services in the area that can help you
- We suggest you consider whose telephone you use to call these people. Each telephone has a built in redial. To disable this after you call, replace the receiver, pick up and press 1 (then if redial is used by the abuser it will dial 1 which is no number).

IN AN EMERGENCY ALWAYS
CALL THE POLICE ON 999

This directory includes all of the local and some of the national organisations that you can contact for help or advice on dealing with domestic abuse including counselling, health, drugs and alcohol, housing and money.
